E25/036 SUMMER FETE

Cllr. P. Milward reported he had contacted the Police to attend, and also the Allotments who agreed. He was awaiting replies from Judo, Prostate Cancer charity, Cranston's and the street Champion. It was agreed to place an item in the next newsletter about the events. Cllr. S. Younis thanked Cllr. P. Milward for his hard work. Cllr. E. Callear reported the True North Motorcycle group may attend. Cllr. J. Snell stated the Canal Trust will attend. Cllr. S. Younis reported he will ask the Bhangra dancing group if they can attend, and also a lady doing Henna paint, as long as she has the relevant insurance. Cllr. S. Younis went on to say he will email the local Mosques and contact the chip shop to invite them to take part again. It was agreed to give 300 ice creams and 300 cones of chips to children at the event as was appreciated last year.

E25/037 UPDATE ON EVENTS 2026

The Volunteers Day was agreed for 18th April between 12 and 3pm. Councillors will be asked to nominate groups or individuals to attend by 27th March to enable invitations to be sent. It was agreed to give certificates and gifts to volunteers. Cllrs S. Younis and P. Milward will approach Tesco's, Morrisons, Sainsburys and Asda for free gifts or food donations, and Cllr. J. Snell will approach Cllr. J. Kaur for the same.

Cllr. P. Milward and Cllr. S. Younis will meet with H.L.C. in the coming weeks to discuss the upcoming multicultural event and will report back to the Committee.

Cllr. E. Callear proposed, Cllr. J. Snell seconded, all in favour to visit Llandudno for the coach trip this year.
